Miss Williams estimates that she has taught about 1500 children in her years in the education field and that more than 500 have been enrolled at Appomattox Elementary School each year since it began operation.

Locally known for her art work, she quite naturally lists that first among her hobbies but following a close second is her interest in arrangement of flowers. The visitor to her school is sure to see evidence of these as soon as he enters the building. She is artistically inclined enough to do work in several media and musically enough inclined to enjoy the piano.

The Williams family was a large one, being made up of six sons and five daughters. Surviving members of her family are Howard T. Williams, Woodrow Williams, and Mrs. Ruby W. Clark, of Pamplin; Bascom Williams, of Richmond; Mrs. Thomas E. Caldwell and Mrs. C. Vest Wingfield, of Lynchburg; and Mrs. Harold Southern, of Norfolk.

Miss Williams closes her teaching career with praises for the progress shown in the field of education. She is especially pleased to have witnessed the large amount of individual instruction carried out in the schools of today.

Florist Shows Church Designs

Mrs. Leo Wood, of Wood's Florist, Lynchburg, gave a talk and demonstration on church flower arrangements at the regular meeting of the Garden Club Monday night, May 27th. Choice of flowers and color, mechanics of arrangement, proportion and design, tips on conditioning were pointed out in a talk that a teacher should accent the great potentialities of the students rather than the problems that may be present.

Miss Davis, who is a native of Pamplin, is a graduate of Appomattox High School. She holds a Bachelor's Degree from Longwood and her Master of Education Degree from the College of William and Mary. Her teaching in the public schools of Virginia was done in Charlotte, Tazewell, and Henrico counties. She served as teacher and principal in the Pamplin High School just prior to her appointment as assistant supervisor of elementary education with the State Department of Education. From there she went to the College of William and Mary where she taught in the Department of Education. Upon leaving William and Mary, she accepted her present position.

The AEA presented silver bowls to the three retiring teachers. They are Miss Flora Belle Williams, principal of Appomattox Elementary School; Miss Della Ingle, teacher of third grade at A. E. S.; and Mrs. Kathleen Carnon, teacher of seventh grade at A. E. S.

Those who received pins for having taught 25 years or longer were Mrs. Mildred Alvis, visiting teacher; Mrs. Mary Taylor, Appomattox High School; Mrs. Sadie Brightwell, Pamplin Elementary School; Mrs. Mildred Burkey, Mrs. Lois Rogers, Mrs. Kathleen Carnon, Mrs. Thelma Martin, Miss Nola Burfoot, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Della Ingle, and Miss Flora B. Williams, all of Appomattox Elementary School; Mrs. Bessie O'Brien and Miss Elizabeth Hankins, of Oakville Elementary School; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert, Miss Julia Asher, and Henry Pauk, of Appomattox High School; Mrs. Pearl Lacado, Mrs. Eileen Hervey, Mrs. Lucille Webb and Mrs. Sarah Wayne, all of Pamplin Elementary School; Mrs. Virginia Gunter, of Vera Elementary School; and Mrs. Colver Scruggs, of Spout Spring Elementary School.

Miss Merle Davis Speaks

Silver Bowls; Pins Presented AEA Honors Retiring Teachers;

Miss Merle Davis, supervisor of elementary education in the State Department of Education, addressed the members of the Appomattox Education Association at its annual dinner meeting on Friday evening. Three retiring teachers were honored and pins, denoting twenty - five or more years service were presented to twenty - two teachers

Miss Davis centered her remarks around the influence of a good teacher. She quoted or made reference to a number of books, poems, and articles which honored teachers. Miss Davis stated that a good teacher tries to find the genius in each child and cited that in her teaching career at the College of William and Mary she, on occasion, questioned students as to the most impressive teacher they had ever had. Invariably she received the same answer that it was the one who saw each pupil as an individual. It is her feeling that the battle for a better world is won or lost in the schools.

Miss Davis, a native of Appomattox County, stated that as yet there has been no criteria developed for judging teachers due to the uniqueness of each individual teacher. It is her feeling that a teacher should accept the great potentialities of the students rather than the problems that may be present.

Appomattox Story Wins UPI Award

(We acknowledge with thanks, permision to use this write-up from the Farmville Herald, May 24 issue. Ed.)

Alfred E. "Al" Smith, WFLO radio announcer, has been honored for "Blue Ribbon Achievement" for the Best Documentary 1962 by the United Press International Broadcasters Association of Virginia. The award was made for a two part documentary, "The Confederacy," presented by "Al" the last two years on April 8, the eve of the Confederate surrender at Appomattox.

He received the award on May 11 at the UPI broadcasters conference held at Virginia Beach.

The two-hour program took over two months for "Al" to put together. It featured Southern music from the 1851-65 era as well as the confederate story.

"Al" contributes much of the success of his program to his sources of research, including the Longwood College library, information from the UPI and local Confederate "i. Shorties", such as Harvey Shelton "Buddy" Whitaker. "Buddy helped me a great deal with this program. He really knows the Civil War, especially the part that took place around Prince Edward county," said Al. "The program included part of the action that took place at the McLean House, Appomattox, with my co-worker John Wilson doing this segment of it."

3 A.M. in a pharmacy...

It is 3 A.M. in a community pharmacy. The street is in darkness, yet lights are on in the pharmacy. Why? Because the pharmacist is faced with an emergency.

He received an urgent telephone call at 2:50 A.M. Mrs. Saxon, a sufferer from asthma, was having severe difficulty in breathing. Her husband told the pharmacist that she had run out of the medicine prescribed by her physician.

The pharmacist dressed quickly, rushed to his store, located the original prescription in his files, telephoned to Mrs. Saxon's physician, prepared and delivered the medication. Soon, Mrs. Saxon was breathing normally again, and a possible tragedy had been averted.

Such crises are frequent, yet your pharmacist meets them with speed and confidence as part of his complex professional duties. Today, a pharmacist goes to college for five years, spends many hundreds of hours in apprenticeship, and must pass a rigorous state examination before he is licensed. He must stock thousands of dollars worth of health products you need every day—as well as those you may need only once in a lifetime.

It was not by chance that the pharmacist had the proper drug ready for Mrs. Saxon when she needed it. We call the complex process by which a drug moves from manufacturer to patient "the miracle of drug distribution."

The teamwork of manufacturer, drug wholesaler and pharmacist assures that you—as well as Mrs. Saxon—will always receive the medicine you need. This miracle of drug distribution—the fact that the medicine you need is ready when you need it—is just one reason why prescriptions are today's best bargains.

TO THE PEOPLE OF APPOMATTOX COUNTY

We urge you to support and vote for Walter C. Conner for Sheriff of Appomattox County to succeed himself.

Walter Conner is well qualified and has demonstrated his ability to fill the position in a most satisfactory manner. He has been Sheriff of Appomattox County since December 1960 when he was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Sheriff Robertson. Prior to this, he was Deputy Sheriff for over ten years. He is a veteran of World War II having served four years and eight months with thirty-two months overseas in actual combat. He was the first man to be called up for service from Appomattox County.

Mr. Conner will devote his full time to the job. He has no other income and needs the position to support his wife and two children who are in school.

We believe his experience as a soldier with thirty-two months of actual combat service, Deputy Sheriff for ten years and now Sheriff well qualify him for the position he seeks.

Mr. Conner was A-1 when the time came to face the enemy and risk his life to protect our country. He should be A-1 now!
